

Iron County Museum

CASPIAN, MICHIGAN / HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BRAND IDEA

Local memory, kept in living form.

A warm, grounded identity for a museum campus of cabins, galleries, archives, and local stories. The system should feel tactile, trustworthy, outdoors-aware, and quietly contemporary.

CATEGORY

Outdoor heritage museum

25 buildings, 100+ exhibits, art galleries, archives, events, and community programs.

AUDIENCE

Visitors, families, schools, donors

Clear planning details and a reason to spend a full day with regional history.

TO NE

Historic, tactile, generous

Avoid generic nostalgia. Lead with confidence, usefulness, and material warmth.

LOGO CONCEPT

The mark combines a cabin frame, museum doorway, and upward roofline. It works as a campus sign, favicon, social avatar, exhibit badge, and donor seal.

CONSTRUCTION

One protected interior, one roof gesture, one entrance. Simple enough to reproduce at small sizes.

WORDMARK

Iron County Museum

A serif wordmark carries institutional trust. The sans system keeps visitor information useful and direct.
